

Code of Ethics

Professional social workers in Saskatchewan are required to practice in a way that is consistent with the Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers (SASW) and Canadian Association of Social Workers (CASW) Code of Ethics.

Location

Services are provided in the home or at other locations in your community.

If you would like to see a social worker, please call Client Patient Access Services (CPAS) at 306-655-4346 to ask for a referral.

For group information, call Community Services at 306-655-3400.

The cost for these services is covered by your Saskatchewan Health Card.

Community Services Social Workers help adults and their primary caregivers cope with physical health changes by providing counselling services in the home.

Counselling

Each situation is unique. Community Services Social Workers provide support for many concerns including:

- Adjusting to a new diagnosis
- Living with a chronic illness
- Palliative care needs
- Falls and safety concerns
- Managing pain
- Grief, loss, and bereavement
- Caregiving challenges
- Family and relationship challenges

Group Programs

Groups offer an opportunity for each person to share ideas and concerns and to receive information and support.

Women's Bereavement Group

For women who have recently experienced the loss of their partner.

Caregiver Group

For people providing care to an adult family member or friend.

Qualifications

Community Services Social Workers are registered members of the Saskatchewan Association of Social Workers (SASW) and have professional training at either a Bachelor's (BSW) or Master's (MSW) level.

Social Work Values

- Respecting the Dignity and Worth of All People
- Promoting Social Justice
- Pursuing Truth and Reconciliation
- Valuing Human Relationships
- Preserving Integrity in Professional Practice
- Maintaining Privacy and Confidentiality
- Providing Competent Professional Services
